

WOODWORKING TEACHER

Tower School is an independent Pre-K–8 school located in Marblehead, MA. Our mission is to teach our students to think critically and creatively, to develop joyful curiosity, to embrace challenges and apply their knowledge with confidence, and to thrive within a community rich with diverse perspectives and talents.

Tower seeks teaching faculty who demonstrate an interest in participating fully in the life and activities of a highly engaging elementary and middle school and will contribute to furthering Tower’s mission. Successful candidates will exhibit a great work ethic, a good sense of humor, strong written and verbal communication skills, and an ability to inspire young people.

Tower seeks a full-time, enthusiastic, collaborative, and experienced woodworking teacher to start in August 2021.

Ideal candidates will possess:

- A minimum of a bachelor’s degree in art or in education
- A depth and breadth of studio art particularly woodshop skills
- Experience teaching visual art to students ages 4-14
- Experience teaching with a variety of woodworking projects, painting, sculpting, and textiles
- Ability to work collaboratively with art department colleagues to support a spiraling art curriculum and offer a wide range of elementary and advanced woodworking projects
- Experience displaying student projects is preferred
- An ability to respond with kindness and patience to students’ developing emotional needs and learning styles

Tower School is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Tower welcomes candidates who would add to the racial, cultural, and gender balance of the School community. A classroom teaching position is physically demanding and qualified candidates will need to exhibit appropriate abilities. Appropriate accommodations can be made where necessary.

Please email a resume and a statement of your teaching philosophy to Patti Gillis, Receptionist & Registrar, at jobs@towerschool.org.
